

CREED
Medical Group

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Contents

Welcome to Creed Medical Group.....	2
Introduction	2
Employment Policies	2
Work Schedule and Attendance	3
Code of Conduct and Professionalism	4
Confidentiality and Data Protection	5
Performance Evaluation and Development.....	5
Grievance Procedure	5
Termination of Employment	6
Acknowledgment of Receipt.....	6

Welcome to Creed Medical Group

At Creed Medical Group, we are dedicated to providing exceptional behavioral health services to clients of all age groups with developmental disabilities in the DC, Maryland, and Virginia area. Our mission is to improve the lives of individuals and families by offering compassionate care and support.

Introduction

Creed Medical Group is committed to providing high-quality healthcare services to our community, focusing primarily on behavioral health services for clients with developmental disabilities. As an employee of Creed Medical Group, you are an essential part of our team and contribute to our mission of improving the health and well-being of our patients.

Employment Policies

At Creed Medical Group, we prioritize professionalism, integrity, and the safety of both our employees and clients. Therefore, all employees must adhere to the following policies:

- Equal Employment Opportunity: Creed Medical Group is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law. We are committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive workplace where all employees are treated with respect and dignity.
- Anti-Harassment Policy: Creed Medical Group is committed to providing a work environment free from harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. Harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment, will not be tolerated. Employees are expected to treat each other with respect and refrain from engaging in any form of harassment or discriminatory behavior.
- Drug-Free Workplace: Creed Medical Group is committed to maintaining a drug-free workplace. The use of illegal drugs or the abuse of prescription drugs is strictly prohibited. Employees are prohibited from reporting to work under the influence of drugs or alcohol, and any violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- Zero Tolerance for Theft: Creed Medical Group has a zero-tolerance policy for theft. Any form of theft, including but not limited to stealing from clients' homes or from the company, will result in immediate termination of employment.
- Professional Conduct and Dress Code: Employees who visit clients' homes must dress professionally and conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on Creed Medical Group. This includes maintaining a neat and professional appearance and adhering to appropriate behavior and communication standards at all times.
- Background Checks and CJIS: All employees are required to undergo a thorough background check and Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) clearance before commencing employment with Creed Medical Group. This is to ensure the safety and security of our clients and uphold our commitment to providing trustworthy and reliable services.

- Proof of Vaccination: In alignment with our commitment to ensuring the health and safety of our clients, especially those who may be immunocompromised, all employees are required to provide proof of vaccination against communicable diseases. Employees must submit documentation of their vaccination status before beginning employment with Creed Medical Group. Failure to provide proof of vaccination may result in the delay or revocation of employment offers.
- Confidentiality: Employees must maintain the confidentiality of client information and adhere to HIPAA regulations at all times. Any unauthorized disclosure of client information will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- Client Safety: Employees are responsible for ensuring the safety and well-being of clients during all interactions. This includes following safety protocols and procedures, reporting any concerns or incidents promptly, and advocating for the best interests of the client at all times.

By adhering to these employment policies, employees contribute to maintaining a safe, professional, and respectful environment for both clients and colleagues alike.

Note: Creed Medical Group reserves the right to update or amend these employment policies as necessary, and employees will be notified of any changes in a timely manner.

Work Schedule and Attendance

At Creed Medical Group, we prioritize reliability, professionalism, and continuity of care for our clients. To ensure smooth operations and consistent service delivery, we have established the following policies regarding work schedule and attendance:

- Work Hours: Employees are expected to adhere to their assigned work schedule and to arrive punctually for their shifts. Any changes to the schedule must be approved by the supervisor in advance.
- Absences and Tardiness: Employees must notify their supervisor as soon as possible in the event of an unplanned absence or tardiness. No-call, no-show incidents are not tolerated and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. In case of an emergency, employees must provide written documentation to support their absence.
- Holiday Work: Employees are expected to work on holidays as required by the company's operational needs. However, if an employee is unable to work on a holiday, they must notify their supervisor at least one week in advance. This allows management to make necessary arrangements to ensure adequate coverage and continuity of care for our clients.

- Holiday Pay: Employees who work on holidays will receive holiday pay, which is compensated at a rate of time and a half for the hours worked in addition to their regular pay.
- Emergency Leave: In the case of an emergency that prevents an employee from reporting to work, such as a sudden illness or family emergency, the employee must notify their supervisor as soon as possible, and at least four hours before the start of their shift. This allows management to find coverage and ensure continuity of care for our clients.

By adhering to these policies, employees contribute to maintaining a reliable and efficient work environment, ensuring continuity of care for our clients, and effective operation of our organization.

Note: Any deviations from these policies must be approved by management in advance. Violations of these policies may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Code of Conduct and Professionalism

At Creed Medical Group, we uphold the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and respect in all our interactions. Our Code of Conduct and Professionalism outlines the following expectations for all employees:

- Professionalism: Employees are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times, demonstrating courtesy, empathy, and professionalism in their interactions with patients, colleagues, and visitors.
- Dress Code: Employees must adhere to the company's dress code policy, which may include wearing uniforms or business casual attire as specified by their department or role. Maintaining a neat and professional appearance contributes to the positive atmosphere and professional image of Creed Medical Group.
- Social Media Policy: Employees must adhere to the company's social media policy, refraining from posting inappropriate or disparaging content about Creed Medical Group or its patients. Additionally, employees must obtain signed consent from clients' families before taking and posting pictures of clients on social media platforms. Posting videos and pictures of clients without prior approval from the company and the client's family is strictly prohibited and may result in immediate termination of employment.

By adhering to these policies, employees contribute to maintaining a professional, respectful, and ethical work environment at Creed Medical Group.

Note: Any violations of the Code of Conduct and Professionalism, including breaches of the social media policy regarding client privacy, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Workplace Health and Safety

- Workplace Safety: At Creed Medical Group, the safety and well-being of our employees are paramount. Employees are expected to adhere to all safety procedures and protocols to ensure a safe work environment. This includes following proper ergonomic practices, utilizing personal protective equipment when necessary, and promptly reporting any unsafe conditions or hazards to their supervisor.
- Emergency Procedures: Employees must familiarize themselves with the company's emergency procedures, including evacuation routes, emergency exits, and contact information for emergency services. Regular drills and training sessions will be conducted to ensure that employees are prepared to respond effectively in the event of an emergency.

Confidentiality and Data Protection

- HIPAA Compliance: Creed Medical Group is committed to upholding the highest standards of patient confidentiality in accordance with HIPAA regulations. Employees must adhere to HIPAA guidelines and safeguard patient information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure at all times.
- Data Protection: Employees are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and integrity of sensitive company information, including electronic data. This includes following company policies and procedures regarding data access, storage, and transmission, as well as implementing appropriate security measures to protect against data breaches or unauthorized access.

Performance Evaluation and Development

- Performance Reviews: Employees will undergo regular performance evaluations conducted by their supervisors to assess their job performance, provide constructive feedback, and identify opportunities for growth and development. These evaluations serve as a tool for continuous improvement and professional development.
- Professional Development: Creed Medical Group encourages employees to pursue ongoing professional development opportunities to enhance their skills, knowledge, and competencies. This may include attending workshops, conferences, or training programs relevant to their role and career goals.

Grievance Procedure

- Grievance Process: Creed Medical Group has established a formal grievance procedure for employees to address concerns or complaints related to their employment. Employees are encouraged to communicate their grievances through the appropriate channels.

outlined in the company's grievance policy to ensure that issues are addressed promptly and fairly.

Termination of Employment

- Termination Policy: While Creed Medical Group values the contributions of all employees, termination may be necessary in certain circumstances, such as poor job performance, misconduct, or violation of company policies. Termination decisions will be made in accordance with company procedures and may be subject to review and approval by management.
- Exit Procedures: Employees who resign or are terminated from their employment with Creed Medical Group must follow the company's exit procedures. This includes returning company property, completing any necessary paperwork, and participating in an exit interview, if required.

Acknowledgment of Receipt

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Creed Medical Group Employee Handbook and agree to abide by the policies and procedures outlined therein.

Employee Signature: _____ Date: _____

Supervisor Signature: _____ Date: _____